Following remarks by Mr. DeFaria, Mr. Bradley and Mr. Kormos in respect of Remembrance Day, the House observed a minute of silence.

The Speaker delivered the following ruling:-

Yesterday, the Member for Mississauga Centre introduced Bill 207, An Act to amend the Retail Sales Tax Act to provide an exemption from tax for amateur youth sports.

After the Bill received First Reading, the House Leader for the Official Opposition, the Member for Windsor-St. Clair, rose on a point of order to question the orderliness of the Bill with respect to Standing Order 56, which states "Any bill, resolution, motion or address, the passage of which would impose a tax or specifically direct the allocation of public funds, shall not be passed by the House unless recommended by a message from the Lieutenant Governor, and shall be proposed only by a minister of the Crown."

I undertook to review the Bill and have since done so.

The simple purpose of the Bill is to provide for an alleviation of the provincial sales tax that would normally be payable upon the purchase of a specified class of tangible personal property. This is conceptually similar to the tax credit proposed by the Member for Etobicoke North (then Etobicoke-Rexdale) in his Bill 24 of the Second Session of the Thirty-Sixth Parliament, which Speaker Stockwell ruled on in 1998.

In that instance, it was found that, although the proposal, if passed, would impose a burden on the Consolidated Revenue Fund, this would only occur indirectly. I find the same in the current case and therefore find Bill 207 to be in order.
